OUR MIDSUMMER SALE.

House-cleaning in August may not be good domesticity but it's good merchandizing. We're promised 2½ months, full 90 days of warm weather yet, so the seasonableness of our goods can't be disputed. You need coaxing, we need money. Therefore we're going to convert stock into cash by offering price inducements you can't resist. It's easy enough to sell the "cheap" cheap, but we're selling the good cheap. Key your expectations to the highest, then come. This is a sale to move accumulated stock, not to make a profit. Begins Monday, August 12th, ends Saturday, August 17th.

RIVER NEWS.
The Bonanza will pass up for Pomeroy tonight.
The Lizzie Bay will be down tonight for Cincinnati.
A clear channel of thirty feet depth has been dredged between New Orleans and the jetties.
The towboat Uncle Sam has been thoroughly repaired at the Harrett plant at Leavenworth. She will tow for the Barretts and is a No. 1 towboat.

The newspaperman that declines to accept advertisements from a Fair Company that permits the sale of beer on its grounds, and accepts advertising from a Fair Company that not only permits the sale of liquor, but also announces through the Associated Press dispatches that its "gambling privileges have been sold for $3,000," isn't that newspaperman just a trifle inconsistent?

SPEAKING OF THE GREAT STRIKE and the attempts of the Amalgamated Association to prevent men from taking the places of the strikers, Archbishop Ireland uses this forcible language—
"But while the right to enter upon a strike is and must be considered as a right belonging to the personal freedom of workmen, this much must be demanded—and in the name of the same principle of personal freedom under which men act and refuse to work—that they who cease to work must in no way interfere with the liberty of others who wish to work. The personal freedom of the individual citizen is the most sacred and precious inheritance of Americans. The Constitution and the laws of the country guarantee it; the spirit of the country proclaims it; the prosperity of the people, the very life of the Nation, require it. Whatever the other interests at stake, that of the personal freedom of the individual outranks them all, and this must be sustained, even if those who are sacrificed. Neither state nor fellow-citizen may interfere with my personal liberty. This is the very core of Americanism. This is the teaching, positive and clear, of natural and of Christian ethics."

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark died shortly before 12 o'clock last night at the family home on the Fleming pike.

A damage suit for $7,500 has been filed in the Fleming Circuit Court by Mrs. Amelia King, Administrator of P. H. King, against the Covington, Flemingsburg and Ashland Railway. Mr. King's death occurred a few months ago from injuries he received in an accident while riding on one of the Company's cars.

THE JEWELER.

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE
At some time, if not habitually, you have sour stomach, indigestion, flatulence, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, bloated or muddy skin, or some of the other symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system. Laxative will cure you. It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels will move regularly, your liver and kidneys will cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.
Mothers who had been seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, find Laxative an ideal medicine for children. Children like its taste and ask for it. It keeps their bowels regular without any pain or griping, and acts as a general tonic at the same time. It will assist nature, aid digestion, relieve restlessness, clear the coated tongue, reduce fever, cause refreshing, restful sleep and make them well, happy and healthy.
Laxative, the great laxative tonic, is not only the efficient of family remedies, but the most economical. It contains two medicines, viz: Laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other medicine gives you the benefit of Laxative and tonic for so few cents. THE LAXATIVE CO., 125 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 355 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

GENERAL GRANT'S RETREAT.

An Incident Which Showed the Great Man's Real Greatness.

Speaking of nightsticks, writes Jacob Rite in The Outlook, reminds me of seeing General Grant in his, to my mind, greatest hour, the only time he was ever beaten, and by a policeman.

I told his son, Fred Grant, of it when he became a Police Commissioner in the '90s, but I do not think he appreciated it. He was not cast in his great father's mold. The occasion I refer to was after the General's second term in the Presidency. He was staying at the 3111 Avenue Hotel, when one morning the Masonic Temple was burned. The fire line was drawn half way down the block toward Fifth avenue, but the police were much hampered by a crowd, and were out of patience when I, standing by, saw a man in a great ulster with head buried deep in his collar, a cigar sticking straight out, coming down the street from the hotel. I recognized him at sight as General Grant. The policeman who blocked his way did not. He grabbed him by the collar, swung him about, and, hitting him a resounding whack across the back with his club, yelled out:

"What's the matter with you? Don't you see the fire line? Chase yourself out of here, and be quick about it."

The general said never a word. He did not stop to argue the matter. He had run up against a sentinel, and when stopped went the other way. That was all. The man had a right to be there. He had none. I was never so much an admirer of Grant as since that day. It was true greatness. A smaller man would have made a row, stood upon his dignity and demanded the punishment of the policeman. As for him, there was probably never a badly frightened a policeman when I told him whom he had clubbed. I will warrant he did not sleep for a week, fearing all kinds of things. No need of it. Grant probably never gave him a thought.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in fine words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and this is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, Wall Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality and workmanship.

The Investment Company has taken its place as a permanent institution, and the prejudices that obstructed its early growth are disappearing in the light of experience in its workings. For many months the people of Mason county have been sending over $1,000 a month to be invested in companies at Lexington and other places. Now that we have a Company at home whose plan is the latest and most approved and whose Managers are personally known to you as men of standing and integrity, why not put your investment with them? Patronize your home institution, and your city and country will develop.

There is still a lingering prejudice in the minds of many people against the investment business. This arises largely from lack of information as to the real principles upon which the business is founded.

Our older citizens remember when the first Building Association was started in Maysville. There was a great deal of opposition to it, but it came down the prejudice and was the forerunner of the three prosperous institutions of that kind in Maysville. The Building Association depends for its success entirely upon co-operation.

Life insurance was a rarity in Maysville in the preceding generation, but now it is difficult to find a man entirely uninsured, who is healthy enough to stand a medical examination.

Life insurance is run upon precisely the same principles as an Investment Company, but pays the profits to the dead man's estate.

Our plan is open to the sick and feeble, to whom life insurance is barred, as well as to the healthy and strong. Don't let prejudice stand in your way because the business is unfamiliar to you, but investigate for yourself, and you like others will be convinced. Call at our office or write to the
